

I think that unfortunately one of my earliest memories
is an afternoon in spring when I was about 3 .
I was with my family in a park playing Luna, our beautiful
German
Shepherd . I
barely realised what was happening, but basically my dad threw the ball to far away and Luna ran
away
towards the street and got hit by a
rushing My car.